Alabama Independent School Association Announces 2015 Hall of Fame Inductees

The Alabama Independent School Association is pleased to announce the tenth class of inductees for the AISA Hall of Fame. The Hall of Fame started in 2000, and the twelve inductees will join ninety-four other individuals in the AISA Hall of Fame. The AISA Hall of Fame was designed and developed for the sole purpose of honoring and recognizing those individuals who have made significant contributions to their schools and/or the Association.

The members of the Class of 2015 are:

Rufus Bethea	Retired AAIS Executive Director
Angela Carpenter	Crenshaw Christian Academy
Ted Copland	Pickens Academy
Lt. Col. Jeffrey Damron	Lyman Ward Military Academy
Billy Hamilton	Clarke Preparatory School
John Johnson	South Choctaw Academy
Karim Oaks	Morgan Academy
Dr. Don Roberts	Lee-Scott Academy
Rodger Robison	Clarke Preparatory School
James Sampley	Fort Dale Academy
Timothy Smith	Cornerstone Christian School
Ulric "Ricky" Ward	Lakeside School

The Hall of Fame Selection Committee consisted of past and present AISA officials at the state level as well as headmasters, educators, athletic directors, school boosters, and media members. The AISA Hall of Fame is open to both academic and athletic standouts as well as lay people who have made contributions either at the local level or the state level. The inductees have spent a large portion of their lives supporting the institutions that have made up the Alabama Independent School Association during its forty plus years of existence.

The Alabama Independent School Association's 2015 Hall of Fame Banquet and Induction Ceremonies will be held at the Renaissance Hotel in Montgomery, Alabama, with date and time to be announced. Please call 334-833-4080 for more information.
